

University of the Republic

Program Admission Requirements

Associate of Science program

- A High School diploma, or;
- A certificate of completion from High School (i.e. GED)

Bachelor of Science program

- An Associate degree, or;
- 60 units from an accredited degree granting institution (including the completion of all “General Education” in the areas of math and science - Exceptions will be considered on a case by case basis);
- Official transcripts will need to be submitted directly to the University of the Republic prior to being accepted as an official or unofficial student of the program. The University of the Republic only requires transcripts from institutions from which a degree was conferred, or units accumulated;

Master of Science program

Bachelor’s Degree

- Official transcripts will need to be submitted directly to the University of the Republic prior to being accepted as an official or unofficial student of the program.

Other requirements

- Access to a personal computer or a type writer;
- Knowledge of a word processing program (i.e. Microsoft Word);
- Access to reference material;
- Knowledge of the MLA format;
- Time to attend to course materials and reading assignments;
- A motivation to learn;
- A physical and email address;
- If the student has access to the internet and email then most of the program materials may be sent via this route.
- If the student doesn’t have access to the internet / email then the University of the Republic will need to send the program materials to a physical address.

